

Decree of the Minister of Agriculture
Number 37/Permentan/OT.140/8/2006

concerning

Testing, Evaluation, Release and Withdrawal of Variety

Scope

Scope of this Decree covers regulation on testing, evaluation, release, varietal denomination, and withdrawal of variety.

Article 11

Paragraph (1)

Promising line(s) which is proposed to be released can be developed through plant breeding activities in the country or introduction

Paragraph (2)

Promising line(s) as referred to paragraph (1) can be pure line(s), composite, cultivar, clone, mutant, hybrid, transgenic, and/or derived from other plant breeding technique

Paragraph (2)

Promising line(s) as referred to paragraph (1) can be released if they are fulfilled the requirements as follow:

- a. plant pedigree, which consists of origin, parent names, original location, owner name or inventor, estimate of life for perennial plants or time of spreading for annual plants which have been developed in the community (local variety) and breeding method which is used;
- b. complete and clear description is available, therefore memungkinkan untuk identifikasi dan pengenalan varietas tersebut secara akurat;
- c. showing superior compare to control variety;
- d. unique, uniform, and stable;

- e. statement from the owner that breeder seeds are available in appropriate quantity as well as quality for further multiplication; and
- f. completed with the data of the field testing results from all locations and/or laboratory.

Paragraph (3)

For introduction variety in addition to fulfill the requirements as referred to paragraph (3) should attach the permit from the owner of variety;

Paragraph (4)

For hybrid in addition to fulfill the requirements as referred to paragraph (3) the description of parent should be attached.

Article 12

For promising line(s) genetically engineered product in addition to fulfill the provisions as referred to in the Article 11 should fulfill the provisions of biosafety.